Message from the Governor General on the excessor of the 150° anniversary of Stanstead College

I am pleased to send warm premings to everyone estebnishing the exequirence ontail of Spassered College, Education opens the door to knowledge and provides us with opportunities to grow. From a young age, it instills in us the importance of learning, discipline and collaboration. It encourages us to build relationships, form opinions and defend ideals. It helps us find our way in our diverse and multicultural society.

Staretead College has Riced some farmidable challenges during its 150-year history, two world wars, a major fire, pandemica, social opticaval, and ropid verbacingdoni advances, to name but a few Despite all of this, it has continued to thrive, while remarking true to its motto: Souther Sophewise Religio—builth, weadown, integrity.

Today, students, faculty and striff of Stansead College seize every appearantly to learn from one another and build a strong community. Together, they committee to creating a world of possibilities and large.

Congratulations on this impressive milestone!
